Mrs. Cook

Dedication

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1966, wish to dedicate our annual to Mrs. Basil Willett. Thru her past eleven years at Murray Community School she has served as both a teacher and a secretary. We would like to sincerely thank her for her kind patience and service beyond obligation.

Junior Class Play

The junior class presented Le Roma Greth's three act, hillbilly play,"Headin' For The Hills." The story concerns Cornelia Wellington Heister and her sister, Dorthea. They're wealthy orphans whose only living relatives are a hillbilly family who run a general store in Lone Mule, Tennessee. Their father's will directs that the girls are to spend their summers in Lone Mule or forfeit their share of the fortune. Being a bit spoiled and accustomed to luxuries, Cornelia in particular hates the arrangement. Dot, only thirteen, thinks it might be fun. Cyrus Goolus, their uncle, is a miser who sees a chance to make himself some money. He decides to try to chase the girls away and inherit all the fortune himself. In an avalanche of fun and laughter, he shows the girls the worst of hillbilly living.

Senior Class Play

The senior class presented Jay Tobias' three act farce-comedy, "The Funny Brats."

Dick and Harriet, high school youngsters, are infuriated because their widowed mother, Mrs. Sylvia Gresham, has allowed their older brother, Tom, to become the dictator of the family. They secretly send Tom's picture to a wealthy widow, Mrs. Gwynette Gadwood, whose advertisement for a husband has appeared in a matrimonial paper. Dick and Harriet hope Mrs. Gadwood will marry Tom and take him far, far away, so they can have some freedom and run their mother to suit themselves. Sylvia, tired of her children's bickering, decides they need a father. Since Loren Gresham, her bachelor brother-in-law with whom she is in love, is too bashful to propose, she becomes engaged to the crabbed old widower, Whaley McWhorter, who believes in training children as he trains mules. Dick and Harriet, thinking Whaley will prove even a worse dictator than Tom, decide to get rid of him by fair means or foul. They play all manner of uproariously funny tricks upon him. They lead him to believe that their mother has intentionally poisoned him after she got a huge diamond ring out of him. Harriet annoys him with her singing until he stuffs cotton in his ears and later thinks he's gone deaf. Mrs. Gadwood arrives from the matrimonial agency in search of Tom. Dick and Harriet, fearing Tom's fury, try to get rid of Mrs. Gadwood by telling her Tom is engaged to the dumb maid, Aurora Pike. "Boogerface Boggs", an amateur wrestler, who is Aurora's boy friend, threatens to murder Tom. The youngsters tell Boggs that Whaley is Tom; he promptly jumps on Whaley and twists him all out of shape! All these situations create a riotous comedy and a whirlwind of laughs. Dick and Harriet finally get their bashful uncle to propose to Sylvia, thinking if he becomes their stepfather he will allow them to do exactly as they please. But how Uncle Loren turns the tables on them is the surprise ending of this sidesplitting play.
